

(January 13, 2006) Lipinski, St. Laurence High School Host Catholic Schools Week Roundtable

Congressman Lipinski, St. Laurence High School Host

Catholic Schools Week Roundtable Discussion Jan. 27

WASHINGTON, DC - U.S. Rep. Dan Lipinski (IL-03) will join St. Laurence High School in hosting a roundtable discussion of the issues facing Catholic schools to mark Catholic Schools Week, January 29th - February 4th.

Catholic educators and community leaders from across the Third Congressional District will join the Congressman 8-9:00 a.m., Friday, January 27th, in the St. Laurence library, 5556 W. 77th St., Burbank.

"As a former teacher, I know that Catholic schools are an integral part of our educational system," said Congressman Lipinski, who attended Catholic elementary and high schools. "The challenges facing Catholic schools are many, such as maintaining funding and enrollment and preparing young people for the global competition our nation faces."

More information on Congressman Lipinski's Catholic Schools Week Roundtable discussion may be obtained by calling (312) 886-0481.